ASGCO® ASGCO®'s Excalibur® Food Grade Belt Cleaners

Allentown, PA.: The food preparation and handling industry must adhere to some of the most stringent sanitary regulations imaginable. It's critical that all aspects of the operation be carried out with the highest regard for cleanliness and compliance to these standards. ASGCO® "Complete Conveyor Solutions" is answering the call for a superior belt cleaning product that meets all of these demands in a lightweight, sanitary and safe solution with The Excalibur®.

Ideally suited for light duty thermoplastic belts with widths from several inches to 10', Excalibur® uses a unique snap-on blade, holder and torsion spring tensioning system. In addition, all food contact components are fabricated from USFDA, USDA and BISSC approved materials. In fact, no other belt cleaner offers these crucial operational features, saving customers money while assuring safe, high quality manufacturing.

These innovations provide food-handling operators with a belt cleaner that virtually eliminates residue from reentering the loading zone. A metal detectable blue blade is available for food processing facilities that require metal detectable plastics in the food contact zone.

The snap-on/off design allows complete change outs to occur in a matter of seconds, and the precision tensioner ensures optimal contact for minimal blade wear and unsurpassed cleaning performance.

Features & Benefits:

- Complete disassembly in seconds
- 300 Series Electro-polished stainless steel
- BISSC certified design
- FDA/USDA compliant materials
- Primary and secondary conveyor belt cleaner mounting locations
