ASGCO® Announces Newly Redesigned Website!

Allentown, PA.: ASGCO® “Complete Conveyor Solutions”, a leading manufacturer of proprietary bulk conveyor components and accessories, is proud to announce the launch of its newly redesigned website at www.asgco.com/. The new site was designed by ASGCO®’s Marketing Department.

The primary goal during the redesign process was to create a more valuable, user-centric and responsive resource across all platforms and devices. Specifically, focusing on making it easier for users to learn and locate valuable information about products and services for their particular application. Not only at their desktop, but also on mobile devices. The updated menu design makes navigation simple and intuitive, helping users have a better overall experience.

ASGCO®’s new website will be updated on a regular basis with news of product launches, essential client material, tradeshow information, and company milestones. The monthly Solutions Newsletter will continue to highlight completed projects and the value created for our clients as a result.

Visitors are encouraged to visit the website and take advantage of all the existing and new features provided. For any suggestions, questions or comments please contact us.
