ASGCO® Announces Tri-Lateral Agreement with WAGENER-Schwelm® and NILOS®.

Allentown, PA.: ASGCO® “Complete Conveyor Solution’s” announces a tri-lateral distribution, manufacturing and intellectual partnership agreement with WAGENER-Schwelm® and NILOS®.

The cooperation between ASGCO®, WAGENER-Schwelm® and NILOS® will greatly improve the ability to service and provide “Best in Class” products to their valued servicing distributors, end-user customers and original equipment manufacturers around the world.

“The integration of highly precise German engineering from WAGENER® and Nilos®, combined with the manufacturing, marketing, sales and service strength of ASGCO® gives us the ability to offer our customers excellent, highly engineered, “Best in the World” conveyor belt vulcanizing products that are “Made in America”, said Aaron Gibbs, President of ASGCO®. “By providing our ASGCO® conveyor products through the NILOS® service branches and then also incorporating the WAGENER® and NILOS® range of products into ASGCO®’s product line; this will provide the “best in class” range of conveyor material handling solutions for our customers”.

Hilden, Germany: “We are proud to announce the new cooperation with ASGCO®, a very well established and reliable brand and company. Together we are able to provide the strongest and most innovative range of products in the conveyor belting industry. The Know-How transfer in both directions guarantees sustainable and high end production as well as increase our after-sales service around the world, said Thomas J. Ziller, Owner of WAGENER-Schwelm® and NILOS®. “Briefly summarized we say - Engineered in Germany, Made in America – that’s our statement for quality and customer satisfaction guarantee”.
